Slightly longer summary of the program

The course consists of the following components:

1. 1.5 months of focused & intense mini course on Python programming, HTML, CSS, and Javascript Programming. Moreover, we will introduce students to the Django framework. FlyWeight mentors will actively guide and help students in the learning process.
2. We will select upto 12 people for the next round based on judgements on enthusiasm, progress, etc.
3. For the next 1.5 months, the selected students will be formed into groups of 3 and each group will be paired up with a FlyWeight mentor. Each mentor will share a real world product plan & action plan to achieve this with the group. In the given period each group will iteratively build the aforementioned product, giving the students real world experience in product building activities.
   All the students in the second round can continue working with the FlyWeight group, building products or researching if they wish to do so. Each of these students will be given a permanent mentorship and we want to build future leadership for FlyWeight with interested students.
